ADELARD M. 'SHORTY' LONG

DOVER FOXCROFT - Adelard M. Long, 92, a resident of Dover Foxcroft for more than 70 years, died May 31, 1993, at a local hospital after several months of declining health. He was born in Fort Kent, Feb. 26, 1901, the son of Moses and Marceline (Bouley) Long and was the second of 10 children. Well known in the area as 'Shorty', Mr. Long and his brother, Odilon arrived in Dover Foxcroft in 1921 to work on the farm of a family member. During his early years in Dover Foxcroft, Mr. Long was a wood cutter for a number pulp and timber operations, using skills he developed as a teenager, working with Odilon in the Allagash region. In 1923, he married Dorothy Mae Clukey, also of Dover Foxcroft. The couple divorced in 1937 and Mr. Long never remarried, but devoted himself to his church, children, and work. While still in his 20's, Mr. Long became highly regarded in the area for his mechanical skills and improvisational ingenuity. During the late 20's he was a boiler tender at Mayo's Woolen Mill. In 1930, Mr. Long was employed by Melbourne Sanborn to set up a repair and machine shop to support Sanborn's vast potato growing and shipping organization, and was instrumental in the development of the electric potato seed cutting machine, a major labor saving device for the time. Fairly well educated during a time when work alternated with schooling, he had a sound grasp of mathematics. He continued his technical education throughout most of his adult life. In 1940 he was employed by the American Woolen Company as a millwright/machinist and was soon promoted to master mechanic, placing him in charge of all repair crews as well as the installation of machinery and power generating systems. When the mills closed in Dover Foxcroft in 1953, Mr. Long joined Stone and Webster Engineering Company of Boston and worked on a number of projects in the Northeast, including expansions for Great Northern Paper in Millinocket and East Millinocket. He was the millwright supervisor for the installation of turbines at the Yankee Atomic Power Plant in Rowe, Mass., during the 1950's. He regarded his work on the atomic plants as the most interesting of his long career. In the early 1960's he worked for Beggs and Cobb Tanning Co. in Dover Foxcroft. In 1963, he joined his sons, David and Clarence in Elmira, N.Y., to assist in the designing and installation of machinery to manufacture an automotive electronic fuel injection system which had been invented by David in 1957. While keeping Dover Foxcroft as his home base, he was to remain in Elmira 10 years before returning home in 1973 to establish a machine shop. His services were used by a wide variety of clients: farmers, merchants, saw mills, small and large factories and even the hospital where he was to later die. Many people in the area in need of help or emergency repairs and without money were given service, as well as materials, without ever being asked to pay. Mr. Long remained active until his 90th year. Well into his 80's, he was roller skating, bowling and fishing. (During the late 1930s and early 40s he operated a roller skating rink at Sebec Lake's Coy's Pavilion.) Although highly regarded for his work ethics and skills, he was looked upon in the community as a person of generosity, warmth and humor who was highly sensitive to the well being of others. While some members of his family found it unseemly, he never objected to the nickname 'Shorty' and had his phone listed as such. Until work took him away from home, Mr. Long was a 15 year member of the Dover Foxcroft Fire Department and helped fight all the major fires of the 1930s which forever changed the face of Dover Foxcroft, (these were the Opera House fire, The Bleton House blaze and the Conflagration of the New Star Theater Block). A Fourth Degree Knight of Columbus, he was a communicant at St. Thomas Aquinos Church, Dover Foxcroft. Surviving was four children, Clarence A. of McKinley, Ralph M. of Elmwood, Mass., E. David of Elmira, N.Y. and Lorita M. Corte of Lincoln, a brother Joseph A. Naples, Fla., 13 grandchildren, eight great grandchildren, two great great grandchildren. Friends may call at the Lory Funeral Home, Dover Foxcroft, 4-6 and 7-9 p. Tuesday, June 1, 1993. A Mass of Christian Burial will be celebrated 10 a.m. Wednesday at St. Thomas Catholic Church in Dover Foxcroft, with the Rev. Joachin Thonh, celebrant. Burial will be in Dover Cemetery. Tribute to Msgr. Albert Long
'Like the Good Shepherd, he knew and loved his sheep'

Msgr. Albert E. Long

"Main Street in Madawaska will never be the same," eulogized Fr. Joer Cyr during a special memorial Mass for Msgr. Albert E. Long, Sunday evening, in that northern Maine community in the St. John Valley.

Msgr. Long, beloved- pastor at St. Thomas Aquinas Parish, collapsed while talking with a layperson in the sacristy of the church on Wednesday evening (Nov. 23), and died enroute to the hospital, the victim of a massive heart attack.

He had served as pastor of St. Agatha Parish in nearby St. Agatha, and the eight previous years as pastor of St. Charles Parish in St. Francis, west of Fort Kent.

He was born in Fort Kent on Apr. 20, 1908. He prepared for the priesthood at the Grand Seminary in Montreal, and was ordained by Bishop McCarthy on June 15, 1935. He served as an associate pastor at St. Ignatius Parish in Sanford, St. Mary's in Lewiston, Sacred Heart in Waterville, and Notre Dame de Lourdes in Skowhegan-with brief stints as administrator in the latter two parishes.

He was made a Monsignor in 1971.

Overflow crowds attended the memorial Mass on Sunday evening and the funeral Mass on Monday at 11 a.m. The funeral Mass was broadcast live over the Madawaska radio station, to allow people unable to be there in person to be there in spirit.

Bishop Fernand Lacroix of Edmundston, New Brunswick, was the principal celebrant at the memorial Mass. Following are excerpts from the homily given by Fr. Joel Cyr, who has served as Msgr. Long's assistant for the past year:

"Through his life, Msgr. Long demonstrated complete service to Christ and His Churchchildren We pray today in thanksgiving for his gift of himself, and we pray that others may be inspired by his example to give of themselves to Christ and His Churchchildren

Msgr. Long went around visiting not only the whole town of Madawaska, but also all of the St. John Valley. He taught in many churches in northern Maine - preached the Good News in St. Francis, St. Agatha and Madawaska.

He healed people with the gentility of his robust, vigorous and hearty heart. As he saw crowds of children, he himself became like them-a child of God. Did you ever see him, in his awkward and loving way, pick up a child and set the child on his lap, and the two would converse?

Descendants of John Philip Long and Marie Josephte Julie Couillard Després.

Through your priesthood, Monsignor, you have called us to be Church in good times and in bad, in health and in sickness.

Monsignor, we will miss you. We will miss your daily routines. We will miss seeing you making deposits, paying bills, picking up mail, buying groceries, and waving and saying 'hello' to everyone.

Main Street will never be the same without you around. We will miss your riding around town, visiting people and checking the new homes being built. We will miss you at prayers, at liturgies, and at meetings. We will miss you, Monsignor-your example, and most of all, we will miss you.

But not all is lost. He (Monsignor) has called us to be Churchchildren What are we going to do now that Monsignor is gone? We can't waste our energies on regrets, although this is indeed a sad matter. Here now, here is what I am leaving with you - every dream I've had, every pledge I made, every hope I cherished, every life I've loved I leave with you. Pick them up and carry them forth. This is what I lived for, so we could be Churchchildren

Msgr. Long's spirit will not be buried - unless we bury his dreams, his hopes, his spirit, and his love. Let us pick them up, and carry on the spirit of Msgr. Long - our call to be Churchchildren

At the funeral Mass on Monday, Bishop Edward C. O'Leary was the principal celebrant. Bishop Lacroix was again on hand to concelebrate. Following are excerpts of the homily given by Fr. Normand Carpentier of Sanford, former assistant pastor at St. Thomas:

To the people of St. Thomas Parish, I express sorrow in the loss of your spiritual Father. Having lived with Msgr. Long for almost five years, I know of the love and admiration you had for him and that he had for you. Like the Good Shepherd in today's gospel, he knew his sheep and his knew him He was with you both in times of joy, and in times of sorrow. And all of us who have known and loved him, who have shared life with him, certainly mourn his sudden death.

Yet, I know that Msgr. Long is happy today, that he would not want us "to yield to grief as if we had no hope." Knowing his faith in God, we can surely say with John in the Book of Revelation: "Happy are the dead who die in the Lord." The Spirit added: "Yes, they shall find rest from their labors, for their good works accompany the married" Having known his faithfulness in service to God and to his people, which was the primary quality of his life, we can say in the words of Jesus: "Well done, good and faithful servant. Come, enter in your Master's joy."

Having seen his dedication to the Lord, to the Church, to his parish-family, we can say with the apostle Paul: He has run the race, he has kept the faith; now the crown of victory awaits him married And the Lord, just judge that he is, will award it to him" Knowing his trust in God our Father, Msgr.'s prayer would certainly be that of Jesus Himself: "Father, into your hands, I commend my spirit."

Msgr. Long was a man of faith, a man of service. His faith and his service were always directed towards the Lord and his Churchchildren He took very little for himself. His faith meant being faithful to the celebration of Eucharist and the Church's sacrament. His faith meant being faithful to the Church, and implementing with joy the changes decreed by Vatican II and our Bishops. He sought from the very beginning to involve men and women in the ministries which the Church was now opening up to them married Under his guidance and leadership many programs came into being at St. Thomas- from CYO-to Special liturgies for the Little ones, to Pre-Cana, etc.

His service meant having time, being available to those who called on him in times of joy as in times of sorrow. He knew that he had been put on this earth to serve God and his people. And with all his heart, he gave himself fully to that never-ending challenge. Life for him was not so much receiving as it was giving, whether it be laboring in the cemetery early in the morning, or catching up on his breviary late at night; in all the parishes where he was assigned, he found joy in serving. He cared for, he loved those that God had entrusted to his care. He, like the Good Shepherd made it a point to know his sheep, and to be known by them married He loved people young and old, rich or poor, and was loved by all The presence of so many of you here last evening and again today, is certainly a tribute to the esteem he had won for himself.

He also knew the meaning of death. He knew that the time would come when his task would be done, when he would be called home by the Father. He knew that if in life, he did the best he could, that if in life he remained faithful, strong and true to his faith, that in death he would share in the Lord's victory. And it is that victory which we celebrate today: a life that was lived in fellowship with the Lord here on earth, now shares a fellowship with God that will never end.

So today we give thanks to God for having shared his love with us through Msgr. Long. We certainly rejoice in the confidence that now Msgr. is with the Lord receiving the crown of victory which the Lord has promised. May he rest in peace.

born 11 Nov. 1902 Fort Kent, Maine; died 30 Sep. 1931 St.-Basile, N.B., Canada appendicitis (and possibly peritonitis); interment St.-Basile, N.B., Canada; married on 30 June 1931 in Fort Kent, Maine to Joseph A. HUDON; interment St.-Basile, N.B., Canada son of Arthur HUDON-BEAULIEU and Therese SMYTH; Joseph A. Hudon later married a nurse from the St.-Basile area.

BRIDE OF THREE MONTHS
DIES SUDDENLY

The sad news of the death of Mrs. Joseph Hudon of Green River, N.B., was received Wednesday morning by her many friends in Caribou and surrounding towns.

Mrs~ Hudon was formerly Miss Adelaide Daigle and was employed in Hackett's Department Store for a number of years. On the evening of June 4th of this year she was given a shower by some of her friends in Bouchard's Hall. At that time she was presented with a number of presents in appreciation of the esteem in which she was held. A few days later she went to her parents' home in Fort Kent to prepare for her wedding, which took place in St. Louis church in that town Tuesday morning, June 30th.

After the wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Hudon returned to Green River, N.B., where her husband, who is a prosperous merchant, had a beautiful home all prepared.

It was the deceased intention of coming to Caribou and visiting her friends, but sickness intervened and forced her to enter St. Basil's Hospital to undergo an operation for appendicitis, from which she failed to recover.

The deceased was a general favorite through her pleasant personality and courteous manner, making her passing more regrettable to all who knew her. To the sorrowing husband, parents, sisters and brothers, goes forward the sympathy of her host of friends.
